It snowed last night!^ Not a whole lot, but just enough for me to go sledding for the first time!^ It was so much fun, but my hands got frozen.^ I need better mittens!^ The rest of my body was warm because I had a snowsuit Grandma Nancy & Great Aunt Trudy found for me when we were in Minnesota last year.^ It fits me perfectly!^ Our driveway is the perfect length and the perfect angle for sledding.^ The only problem is that it angles toward the road, so I have to wait until Mommy is ready at the end of the driveway.^ It's so much fun!^ I giggle so much!^ Then, when we were all finished...Daddy had hot chocolate ready for me!^ Yummy!^ I can't wait until it snows more!
