I make my mommy and daddy smile!^ They tell me that they really like it when I give hugs and kisses all of the time.^ Mommy gets so happy when she picks me up from school and I wrap my arms around her neck and give her a big kiss!^ She tells me it makes her day!^ My daddy loves it when I give him big hugs and kisses when he gets home from work.^ He even likes it when I tell him what I did at school each day!^ I know he likes it because he asks me every day!^ That makes me feel special. ^
