

The new escape artist!

I am such an escape artist! Mommy says I shouldn't be able to get out of my Bumbo Seat by myself, but I do! She took me and the Bumbo Seat with her downstairs so that she could do laundry. When she wasn't looking I maneuvered myself out and almost did a head dive on the concrete floor. I thought it was funny, but mommy didn't. At least I didn't get hurt. Although, I'm a pro at getting out now, I don't even do head dives. It's pretty fun!
